

PLAN COORDINATION / HB 650 & HB 712

Old Law	New Law
STATE DEVELOPMENT PLAN (RSA 9-A) When: July 1, every even-numbered year Who: OSP (under direction of Governor) Content: Policies relative to orderly growth and development Analysis of state's economic condition Goals for economic development programs Policies to protect and preserve farmland and open space Policies to maximize smart growth	STATE DEVELOPMENT PLAN (RSA 9-A) When: October 1, every four (4) years, starting 2003 Who: OSP (under direction of Governor, in consultation with RPCs, local officials, business and environmental leaders, and the general public); plan to serve as the basis for state agencies' policy and program development Content: Policies relative to orderly growth and development, including controlling sprawl Policies to protect and preserve farmland and open space Policies to maximize smart growth New state goals and objectives, which also correspond to local master plan elements outlined in revision to RSA 674:2; includes "regional concerns" and "implementation" sections
GROWTH MANAGEMENT REPORT (RSA 9-B) When: October 1, annually Who: Council on Resources and Development (CORD) Content: Evaluate state agency compliance with the principles of smart growth (RSA 9-B:1-3) Recommend changes in state policy relative to smart growth	GROWTH MANAGEMENT REPORT (RSA 9-B) When: October 1, every four (4) years starting 2001 Who: Council on Resources and Development (CORD) Content: Evaluate state agency compliance with principles of smart growth RSA 9-B:1-3) Recommend changes in state policy relative to smart growth Evaluate state agency consistency with new RSA 9-A	↑
REGIONAL PLANS (RSA 36:47) When: As needed, housing needs assessment at least every five (5) years Who: Regional planning commissions (9) Content: RSA 36:48, I Land use Transportation, Communication Recreation Public buildings and facilities Improvement plans for private buildings Housing needs assessment (also 674:2)	REGIONAL PLANS (RSA 36:47) When: Every five (5) years, starting 7/1/2002 Who: Regional planning commissions (9) Content: In addition to the requirements of RSA 36:48, I, regional policies/plans are now encouraged to use the framework of the State Development Plan, found in RSA 9-A	7 1 2
LOCAL MASTER PLANS (RSA 674:2) When: Prior to adopting zoning Who: Update as needed, conservation/preservation at least every five (5) years Content: "...shall include, if it is appropriate..." Goals & objectives* Land Use* Housing Transportation Community facilities Utilities Construction materials Recreation Conservation/preservation	LOCAL MASTER PLANS (RSA 674:2) When: Prior to adopting zoning Include new elements by 2010, then update every five (5) to ten (10) years Who: Local planning boards Content: Shall include: Vision, Land use May include: Transportation Natural hazards Community facilities Regional concerns Economic development Neighborhood plans Natural resources Community design Cultural/historic resources Recreation Utility/public services Housing Implementation	6 5 0
* Prerequisites for zoning (RSA 674:18)		↓